FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

HKQAA 25th Anniversary Forum and Celebration Cocktail Reception Held Successfully

(28 November 2014, Hong Kong) To celebrate its 25th Anniversary, Hong Kong Quality Assurance Agency (HKQAA) held today the HKQAA 25th Anniversary Forum and Celebration Cocktail Reception in the Ballroom of the Langham Place Hotel, Mongkok. The celebration ceremony was officiated by Mr Gregory So, Secretary for Commerce and Economic Development.

The Forum invited a number of speakers to share their experience and insights in the subject of sustainable development. The HKQAA 25th Anniversary Recognition for Organisations and Presentation Ceremony of HKQAA CSR Index were also held. The event attracted over 600 participants from government, industry and commerce.

Local and Overseas Speakers Discussing the Future of Sustainability

“This year is a memorable year for HKQAA as it celebrates 25 years of service to industry. Since its establishment by the Hong Kong Government in 1989, HKQAA has been committed to providing professional conformity services. We have played a significant, supportive role over the years in promoting the growth of Hong Kong’s economy, commerce and industry,” said Ir Dr Hon. W. K. Lo, Chairman of HKQAA.

“Through knowledge sharing and technology transfer, we help enterprises enhance management performance and competitiveness, so as to benefit the community. After 25 years of hard work, HKQAA has become one of the leading and most creditable conformity assessment bodies in the Asia Pacific region. I am pleased to see that our efforts have been widely recognized,” said Dr Lo.

The HKQAA 25th Anniversary Forum with the theme “Social Footprints: Navigating our Common Journey to Sustainability” was held in the morning session. Ms Anissa Wong, Permanent Secretary for the Environment of the Government of the HKSAR, was invited to address the Forum. The Forum featured acclaimed local and overseas speakers, who discussed topics including waste recycling, sustainability rating, carbon performance, social mobility, technology innovation and social risks.

25th Anniversary Recognition for Outstanding Organisations

In the afternoon session, a celebration cocktail reception was held to celebrate the HKQAA’s silver jubilee. The Agency was honoured to have invited Mr Gregory So, Secretary for Commerce and Economic Development of the Government of the HKSAR, to officiate and address the ceremony.

In the past 25 years, many organisations strived to improve their business operations by adopting different management systems, and achieved remarkable performance. In appreciation for their efforts, HKQAA held a presentation ceremony during the cocktail reception to recognise 50 outstanding organisations. The rating mechanism was based on various rating criteria, including the starting year of the first certificate; the quantity, diversity, overall planning and advocated adoption of certifications. Representatives of these organisations received the recognition trophies at the event.

After that, a ceremony was held to present the CSR Advocate Mark and CSR Plus Mark to organisations that have participated in the HKQAA CSR Advocate Index and HKQAA CSR Plus Index respectively.
